Buttercup

"Miss Buttercup" is a summer crisp and joyful song about a dangerous woman. In the game of love some people "catch and release", so beware of Miss Buttercup, not everything that shines is gold.

Buttercup

Make it up Miss Buttercup, you just cut me up with your uppercuts Say that you love me if my chin lights up and that is why it never stops

Have you heard the story of the Buttercup and the way that you like butter if your chin lights up you place that flower underneath your chin and that is how it all begins

Please dont stop Miss Buttercup
When you picked my heart it was just the start My chin is yellow thill the day I die
So I'm sorry this is just a lie

Lock me up Miss Buttercup
I am as guilty as charged and I will never stop Cause I felt your breeze laying in your fields
and that is why it never stops

I am as guilty as charged and I will never stop
Cause I felt your breeze laying in your fields and that is why I wont give up
