

Martine Kraft & Jump Off Joe

The Eternity Express

In this first single you can hear a pumping piano bass and a percussive driving force as the train called "The Eternity Express" blasts across the prairie. On the tale of the train a family dad, that just ran off from his family, is chasing a train by horse. He has decided to become an outlaw.

The Eternity Express

It's a new day,
it's a new time
It's a life on the run that I love I don't look back, but I look bad and I swear I don't mind what I had

Now I'm chasing through stormy grasslands I'm on the tale of a train that I want
I can make it, if I can take it and that feeling is the greatest reward
to feel strong, but don't you ever go home Cause I'm on

On The Eternity Express
On The Eternity I travel
On The Eternity Express now

This is what I feel, this is what I need so give it to me give to me give to me, til I bleed
I can make it, if I can take it
and that feeling is the greatest reward
to feel strong, but don't you ever go home
Cause I'm on

On The Eternity Express
On The Eternity I travel
