Buried Alive

A man survives his death sentence and manages to dig himself out of his grave while the gravediggers are still nearby. The feeling of being alive has never been stronger; he walks as a free man now that the sentence has been carried out. The music is folky yet jazzy, heavy yet lively, and marks the debut of their new band member, Broadway composer Tor Ingar Jakobsen on piano.

Buried Alive

Six feet under
I had the time of my life
Suddenly I realized I`ve never felt such alive
I crawled like a worm, I spat and I cursed
And then I finally saw the light
Nothing beats the feeling to be buried alive

This is where I`ve been staying for now
In a hole deep under the dirt
Of course some of this did hurt
But I hope I don't have to back to court
I paid my dues I was sentenced and buried but anyhow here I am
Nothing beats the feeling to be buried alive

And it was ten men around and oh hoi they thought I was dead
Oh hoi they thought I was dead so so I showed them
They did not quite believe
What was standing in front of their eyes
This sure was`nt a lie, no I was alive, yeah
