Magnitude Of Love

Acoustic folk goes disco in this positive sing along called "Magnitude of Love". Together with a nostalgic sounding bar-piano and an almost musical-like fiddle, a constant pounding groove backs the story of a deserter on a quest of all that is good in the world.

Magnitude Of Love

I'm swimming
I'm swimming to the shore

I dont want to be on a warship, no not any more

Cause I'm fleeing
I'm fleeing from my land

I dont want to be part of this,
no not anymore if I can

I feel the magnitude of love
And I dont wanna fight it any more
I'm covered up in starlight
That shows me were to go
I feel the magnitude of love
And I just wanna feel it more and more
The waves keep on coming with the forgiveness that we need

I'm dreaming
I'm in the middle of a dream
I've served, my time is done now
My nightmares are all gone

So I'm moving
I'm moving and I'm free
There is not a single thing that is stopping me

I'm screaming to all stars, show yourselves in peoples hearts
