Legends And Kings

"Legends and Kings" has an almost British traditional sound to it with a more modern story telling vocal on top. It is catchy and crisp with a rolling piano bass, banjo, Norwegian Hardangerfiddle, guitar and insisting drumming. The lyrics describes historical personalities from a world known brand in Islington, North London.

Legends And Kings

Have you heard about a legend called Tony
He was the meanest member of the Adams family
He showed his country how to defend
He's a Gunner to the bone
The Arsenal is his home

Have you heard about the big King Henry
Terrifyingly terrific, Henry the Thierry
He showed the world how to strike
He's a Gunner to the bone
The Arsenal is his home

Oh oh oh oh oh
From Woolwich in the south to Highbury in the north
Oh oh oh oh oh
For Legends and Kings let's fight tonight

And then comes this lil' chili boy Bukayo
A Hale End baby with more vision than Galileo
He shows us all how to behave
He's a Gunner to the bone
The Arsenal is his home

Oh oh oh oh oh
From Woolwich in the south to Highbury in the north
Oh oh oh oh oh
For Legends and Kings let's fight tonight
Oh oh oh oh oh
Dial Square gave us Chapman and Graham gave us Wenger
Oh oh oh oh oh
We are Gunners to the bone
The Arsenal is our home

Oh oh oh oh oh
From Woolwich in the south to Highbury in the north
Oh oh oh oh oh
For Legends and Kings let's fight tonight
Oh oh oh oh oh
Dial Square gave us Chapman and Graham gave us Wenger
Oh oh oh oh oh
We are Gunners to bone
We are Gunners to bone
We are Gunners to bone
The Arsenal is our home
